An engineer on the NYC "Bee-liner" charged in testimony at Gaylord last week that the switch of mail from the railroad to high-way trucks was one of the main factors in the railroad company losing money now on the Bay City to Mackinaw City run.

Last week's hearing followed an earlier one in June when the rail-road claimed it lost $96,000 on the run in 1960.

IT TAKES BETTER timing to get a real estate salesman's license in Michigan now than in the past.

Now, due to austerity budgets and cost-cutting measures, the examination for real estate salesman in Detroit will be given only two times a month instead of three times each week.

Year-old chief executive, well known as a personable man, did:

Ho sent silver card trays, boar-ing the Governor of Michigan's seal, to the Lord Mayors of Dublin and Cork, Ireland.

Hare was quick to point out that the change in program means absolutely no softening up in deal-

He said "scofflaws" and other habitual violators would still be severely dealt with, as in the past. If this sounds plausible to you, think again. A preparation which is effective with one patient may fail entirely with another. Only the practicing physician is competent to decide which particular drug is best in any given case. Patients, after all, are individuals, with individual idiosyncracies. And, as the old saying has it, one man's meat may be another man's poison.

Moreover, authoritarian bodies — and any govern-Lake, ment agency with the power to decide which of a group of related drugs is best must be authoritarian — have often been guardians of orthodoxy rather than champions of progress. In the past, medical "experts" rejected Jenner's smallpox vaccine, Pasteur's anthrax vaccine. Lister's theory of antisepsis, and Semmelweis's discovery of the cause of childbed fever. All of these innovations have proven to be milestones in medical classrooms, one to be used exclusioned agroup of the cause of childbed fever. The Way to Fight Cancer

DOBERT Frost once wrote about two roads that diverged in a woods and he "... took the one less traveled by, hought out these lines the other day when a touch of spring in the air made me feel how good it was to be alive.

spring in the air made me feel how good it was to be alive.

When that pain — which turned out to be cancer — developed two years ago, I had a choice of two roads. One was to live with my pain a little longer — to "wait and see"; the other was go to a doctor.

I did consider the "wait and see" road, but not for long. I took the other...

"And that has made all the difference."

I took the road "less traveled by" — and it is "less traveled by" because a great many people do not know Cancer's Seven Danger Signals and do not have an annual health checkup.

Now the road "am talking about is the road."

Arthur Godfrey

Now the road I am talking about is the road that if followed takes you to your best protection against death from cancer. And if some 45,000,000 Americans now alive — that's the number who will develop cancer if things go on as they are — do not take the road "less traveled by," their changes of duing will be greater.

go on as they are — do not take the road "less traveled by," their chances of dying will be greater.

So take the road to better health and life. It is your responsibility; the family's responsibility. The danger signals of cancer and the annual health checkup should be as much a part of your health program as cating and sleeping. They will not only lead you to better health but to a great deal more happiness. They will eliminate a lot of worry and it could stop a lot of heartbreak and financial stress. Know the danger signals; have that yearly health checkup.

Let's make the "less traveled by" road the "most traveled by!" Name of Claimant Char. of Claim
